2. Description & Objectives of the Activity

Organized by the Faculty of Commerce for newly admitted students for the academic session 2026–2027. The programme began with a welcome address by the faculty authorities, followed by an introduction to the University and Faculty of Commerce. Students were briefed about the academic curriculum, teaching-learning process, examination pattern, attendance requirements, practical training, laboratory facilities, library resources and various student-support services. Faculty members introduced themselves and explained the scope and importance of different subjects in Commerce. Students were also informed about skill-development programmes, internships, extracurricular activities, career opportunities and higher education prospects.

3. Outcome of the Activity

The orientation programme successfully familiarized newly admitted students with the academic and university environment. Students gained awareness about the course structure, academic rules, facilities and career opportunities. The programme helped students develop confidence, understand their academic responsibilities and establish positive interaction with faculty members and fellow students. It also motivated them to actively participate in academic, practical, co-curricular and skill-development activities.
