Academic Year: 2026-27

Name of the Activity: Mentor-Mentee & Allocation & Introduction to University Activities

Date & Duration of Activity (Days): 24/07/2026, 3 Hours

Venue of the Activity: Faculty of Engineering

Organised by: Department of Computer Applications

Resource Person Details:

Name & Contact Details of the Organiser (s): (Dr.) Nikhil Srivastava

Number of Participants:15

Objective(s) of the Activity:

1. Establish Guidance: To systematically pair students with faculty mentors for academic and personal growth.
2. Ease Transition: To help new students adapt smoothly to the university ecosystem and culture.
3. Promote Engagement: To introduce various university clubs, committees, and extracurricular platforms available for holistic development.

Description of the Activity:

The Department of Computer Applications organized a comprehensive three-hour orientation and allocation session. The program commenced with an introductory address by the resource person and organizer, Mr. Sonu Verma. He highlighted the critical role of the mentor-mentee relationship in navigating university life.

Following the briefing, the official mentor-mentee allocation list was unveiled, assigning all 15 student participants to their respective faculty guides. The second half of the session focused on a detailed walkthrough of the university's vibrant campus activities. Students were introduced to technical clubs, cultural societies, sports infrastructure, and upcoming academic events, followed by an open Q&A session to clarify student queries.

Outcome of the Activity

1. Structured Mentorship: All 15 participants were successfully mapped to dedicated mentors, creating a direct support channel for their academic journey.
2. Clarity on Policies: Students gained a transparent understanding of university expectations, evaluation methods, and support resources.
