Preamble

This Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) is executed on the 16 September 2026 with the mutual intent of fostering collaboration between the First Party and the Second Party in the areas of academic learning, industry exposure, and professional development.

Acknowledging the growing need for industry-academia partnerships to bridge the gap between classroom education and real-world practices, both parties agree to cooperate in good faith to create platforms that:

- Enhance students' career readiness and employability skills,
- Encourage knowledge sharing between academia and industry, and
- Promote holistic development by aligning educational practices with contemporary industry standards and societal needs.

Purpose of the Agreement

The primary purpose of this Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) is to establish a mutually beneficial partnership between the First Party (University) and the Second Party (Industry) with the objective of bridging the gap between academic knowledge and industrial practices.

Through this agreement, both parties intend to:

- Enhance Employability: Equip students with industry-relevant skills, competencies, and practical exposure to prepare them for the professional world.
- Promote Knowledge Exchange: Facilitate the sharing of expertise, resources, and best practices between academic faculty and industry professionals.
- Strengthen Industry: Academia Linkages: Align curriculum, training, and research activities with emerging industrial trends and technological advancements.

- Encourage Innovation & Research: Provide opportunities for collaborative projects, applied research, and problem-solving initiatives that address real-world challenges.
- Facilitate Career Opportunities: Create pathways for internships, apprenticeships, placements, and entrepreneurial ventures for students.

Duration

This Memorandum of Understanding shall remain effective for a period of five years from the date of its execution. Upon expiry, the MoU may be renewed, extended, or revised through a written agreement mutually consented to by both parties.

General Terms & Conditions

1. Autonomy & Independence

- Both parties shall maintain their institutional and organizational autonomy.
- Nothing in this MoU shall be construed as creating a legal partnership, joint venture, or employment relationship between the parties.

2. Non-Financial Nature

- This MoU does not obligate either party to provide financial commitments unless explicitly agreed upon through a separate written agreement.
- Any expenditure incurred for joint activities shall be mutually discussed and agreed upon in advance.

3. Confidentiality

- Both parties agree to maintain confidentiality regarding proprietary information, research outcomes, and sensitive data shared during the course of collaboration.
- No confidential information shall be disclosed to third parties without prior written consent.

4. Intellectual Property Rights (IPR)

- The ownership and usage rights of intellectual property arising out of joint research, projects, or innovations shall be decided mutually and documented separately.

5. Implementation & Monitoring

- A joint committee comprising representatives from both parties may be formed to plan, monitor, and review the activities under this MoU.

- Regular meetings shall be conducted to evaluate progress and identify areas for improvement.

6. Compliance with Laws

- Both parties agree to comply with all applicable laws, regulations, and guidelines while carrying out activities under this MoU.

7. Amendments

- Any amendment, modification, or addition to this MoU shall be made in writing and duly signed by authorized representatives of both parties.

8. Termination

- Either party may terminate this MoU by providing a written notice of at least thirty (30) days in advance.
- Termination shall not affect ongoing activities already in progress, unless mutually agreed otherwise.

9. Dispute Resolution

- Any dispute arising from the interpretation or execution of this MoU shall be resolved amicably through consultation and negotiation between the parties.
- If unresolved, the matter may be referred to arbitration in accordance with applicable laws.
