Organized by: Legal Aid Club, Faculty of Law, Major SD Singh University, Farrukhabad
Date of Visit: 29-Sep-2026
Venue: Hon'ble High Court (Lucknow Bench), Lucknow
Academic Session: 2026–27
Number of Participants: 45

The Legal Aid Club, Faculty of Law, Major S.D. Singh University, Farrukhabad organized an Educational Visit to the Hon'ble High Court, Lucknow Bench on 29 September 2026 for the students of the Faculty of Law. The visit was organized with the objective of providing students with practical exposure to the functioning of the higher judiciary and enabling them to connect their classroom learning with the actual working of the judicial system.

45 students along with 6 Faculty members were travel from the university campus to Lucknow. Before the commencement of the journey, the student bus was flagged off by the Hon'ble Vice-Chancellor, Registrar, Finance Officer, Administrative Officer, Dean, Faculty of Law and other senior officials of the University, marking the formal commencement of the educational visit.

Objectives of the Visit:

The major objectives of the educational visit were:

1. To provide students with practical exposure to the functioning of the Hon'ble High Court.
2. To familiarize students with the courtroom environment and judicial proceedings.
3. To help students understand the practical application of legal principles studied in their academic curriculum.
4. To create awareness among students regarding the structure, functioning and role of the higher judiciary.
5. To provide students an opportunity to observe proceedings in different courts and understand courtroom discipline and professional practices.
6. To encourage students to develop an interest in litigation, advocacy and judicial services.
7. To familiarize students with various facilities and professional spaces available within the High Court premises.
8. To promote experiential learning as an integral component of legal education.

Description of the Activity:

During the visit, the students:

- Initiate the journey by university campus to Hon'ble High Court, Lucknow at 07:00 AM.
- After reaching the High Court Lucknow the students were divided into 6 groups along with one Faculty and one protocol officer provided by the Registrar of Hon'ble High Court.

- The students visited the various Courts to observe the judicial proceedings and gained first-hand exposure to the functioning of the judicial system.
- The student observed courtroom proceedings and developed an understanding of courtroom decorum, professional conduct and the role of advocates and other stakeholders.
- Visited the Auditorium/Advocates' Auditorium and became familiar with the professional and academic facilities available for members of the legal fraternity.
- Visited the cafeteria and other designated facilities within the High Court premises.
- Explored various important areas of the High Court campus, gaining familiarity with its institutional environment and functioning.
- Interacted with faculty members and discussed their observations regarding court proceedings and professional opportunities in the legal field.

The visit provided students with an opportunity to experience the judicial environment beyond the classroom and to understand how legal concepts are applied in actual judicial proceedings.

Outcome of the Activity:

The educational visit achieved its intended objectives and provided significant academic and practical benefits to the participating students of the faculty.

The major outcomes were:

1. Students gained first-hand exposure to the functioning of the High Court and its judicial environment.

2. Students developed a better understanding of actual courtroom proceedings and judicial practices.
3. The visit helped bridge the gap between theoretical legal education and practical legal experience.
4. Students became familiar with courtroom discipline, professional etiquette and the role of advocates in judicial proceedings.
5. The activity enhanced students' awareness of career opportunities in litigation, advocacy and the judicial system.
6. Students developed greater interest in practical aspects of law and legal profession.
7. The visit promoted experiential and activity-based learning among law students.
8. The interaction and observations during the visit contributed to the students' overall academic, professional and legal awareness.
9. The activity strengthened the Faculty of Law's commitment to providing students with opportunities for practical exposure, professional development and clinical legal education.

Conclusion

The educational visit to the Hon'ble High Court, Lucknow Bench on 29 September 2026 was a valuable academic and experiential learning activity organized by the Legal Aid Club, Faculty of Law, Major S.D. Singh University, Farrukhabad.

The opportunity to observe court proceedings and visit various facilities within the High Court premises enabled students to gain a practical understanding of the functioning of the higher judiciary. The activity complemented classroom teaching and contributed significantly to the students' professional awareness and understanding of the legal system.
